European Studies Certificate of Achievement

The European Studies Certificate of Achievement provides students with an opportunity to study European languages and cultures from the vantage points of several disciplines in arts and humanities. It prepares students to work with French, German, Italian, Russian, Spanish and/or Portuguese-speaking populations from Europe, in the US and abroad.

Program Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this certificate, students will demonstrate proficiency in written and spoken communication in European languages. They will also demonstrate critical understanding of cultural issues relevant to European countries and analysis of the cultural and linguistic differences and commonalities in their world views and systems.
