DR. HENRY OSTER

Even in Hell, There is Hope

Dr. Henry Oster—a child Holocaust victim who survived the Łódź Ghetto, the Auschwitz-Birkenau Death Camp, and Buchenwald, and whose story inspired Toni Scott's Freedom Memorial Sculpture at the Museum of Tolerance—will talk about some of his experiences and the importance of holding out hope under the direst of circumstances. Sponsored by the SMC Associates and SMC Office of Public Programs. Seating is strictly on a first-arrival basis.

Tue, April 5 | 11:15am | Free | HSS 165

Public parking is limited during the day at SMC. Please allow extra time when attending events. See www.smc.edu/transportation for parking options.

The Santa Monica College Associates is a community-based support group that brings outstanding speakers, performers, and special events to SMC to enhance student excellence. Associates members receive invitations to special receptions and advance notices of lectures. Annual Associates memberships are entirely tax-deductible. Call (310) 434-4100 or visit www.smc.edu/associates for more information.
