EMBRACE THE DOCUMENTARY: YOUR BODY. CREATE GLOBAL CHANGE.

Film Screening

Come to an informative screening of Embrace the story of Body Image Activist Taryn Brumfitt, who posted an unconventional before-and-after photo in 2013 viewed by more than 100 million people worldwide, and sparked an international media frenzy. The film explores the global issue of body loathing, and inspires us to change the way we feel about ourselves and think about our bodies. A Q&A and community discussion led by Embodied founder and Certified Eating Psychology Coach Jenn Schaefer will be held March 9 (see listing below for details). Sponsored by the SMC Associates and Associated Students of SMC.

Tue, March 7 | 11:15am | Free | HSS 165

JENN SCHAEFER

Embrace* Post-Screening Discussion: Your body. Create global change.

Jenn Schaefer leads a special Q&A session and community conversation about how to cherish your body and be a catalyst for positive change in our culture. Schaefer—a Certified Eating Psychology Coach and founder of Embodied—has spent decades helping people through periods of transformation as the Organizational Change leader for companies that include CBS, Nestlé, and Accenture. Sponsored by the SMC Associates and Associated Students of SMC.

JES BAKER

The Social Impact on Body Love

“Attractive and Fat” campaign founder Jes Baker—

internationally recognized as a thought leader in the realm of self-love, mental health advocacy, and body image—will talk about the importance of body autonomy, self-love, mental health, and the “Health at Every Size” movement. Sponsored by the SMC Associates and Associated Students of SMC.

Tue, March 21 | 11:15am | Free | HSS 165

PADHIA AVOCADO

The Eco-Feminist Practice of a Street Artist

Los Angeles-based writer and street artist Padhia Avocado will talk about the eco-feminist aspects of her art, which explores the often undiscovered and obscure elements of our interior human landscape, and has been described as ‘psychological commentary.’ Sponsored by the SMC Associates and SMC Art Department.

Sat, April 22 | 1:30pm | Free | Art 126
