IV. Standing Business

   a. Question of the Day: What is your favorite time of the year?

   b. Fall Teach-In

   A campus wide Bulletin to promote the Teach-In was sent on October 11th and a second Faculty All Bulletin was sent a few days later. So far there are only been two applicants. Ideas were discussed on how to get the message out to students. This included social networking ideas and reaching out to the student clubs.

   c. Global Grants

   The Committee continued its previous discussion on Global Grants. Ideas centered on editing the content of the Global Grants application webpage to express the committee's perspective on the types of grants they would like to support. This included:

   - Inclusion an international component and how the international component is defined
   - Grants that are new and unique and not just a repeat of a previous event

- Grants that will appeal to a wide audience of students
- Evaluation criteria and priority
- Focus on indigenous and marginalized populations

The committee will continue to work on TEAMS on the verbiage for the website. The applications will open Nov 1st and close on Nov 24th. Applicants will be invited to the GCC meeting on December 2nd.

V.   Adjournment

Motion to Adjourn: Heskel. Second: Weir. Approved: Brandon Reilly, Denise Kinsella, Carol Davis, Mitch Heskel, Pete Morris, Erica Onugha, Sri Susilowati. 2:02 pm
