IV. Standing Business

a. Welcome and Question of the Day: The GC Committee welcomed back GC Chair Delphine Broccard who had been on sabbatical from Summer 2021 to Winter 2022. The GC Committee discussed the ongoing situation in Ukraine rather than respond to a question of the day.

b. Stanford University Innovation Fellowship Presentation

Professors Luke Johnson and Sheila Cordova from CMD/Design Technology along with SMC students PJ Rodriguez, Miguel Lucas, and Zoe Marin gave a recap of the Stanford Innovation Fellowship Program. The students who are studying in the SMC Interactive Design Bachelor's Degree program participated in the Stanford program for six weeks in Fall 2021. The GC Committee funded their application to this program. SMC is one the first Community Colleges to be invited to participate in this program.

c. Global Grant Application for Spring 2022

Professor Hari Vishwanadha, English, submitted a Global Grant proposal to fund a reading and discussion by Indian author Madhuri Vijay to take place on April 5, 2022. The request was for a $400 speaker fee. After discussion the Committee decided to obtain additional information from Professor Vishwanadha before voting on this proposal.

d. GC Symposium

The GC Committee discussed advertising and funding for the upcoming GC Symposium. The discussion will resume at the next meeting on March 10, 2022.

V. Future Business

- a. This spring the GC Committee will select a new Global Citizenship theme for 2022-2024.
