

BEYOND SEX TOOLBOX SERIES

Santa Monica College Spring 2018

- ◆ Unlawful discrimination is conduct that denies or limits a person's full and equal access to participate in, or benefit from education and/or employment programs, services, or activities. Sexual harassment or misconduct is a form of sex discrimination and is also unlawful under Title IX federal regulations.
- ◆ SMC is committed to empowering all students to take action to eliminate discrimination, harassment, sexual and physical abuse.
- ◆ Any form of discrimination, harassment, sexual violence, or physical abuse occurring against an SMC student, on SMC property, or at an SMC event or activity is a VIOLATION of District policies and regulations.
