

BEYOND SEX TOOL BOX SERIES

Santa Monica College Spring 2019

Unlawful discrimination is conduct that denies or limits a person's full and equal access to participate in, or benefit from education and/or employment programs, services, or activities. Sexual harassment or misconduct is a form of sex discrimination and is also unlawful under Title IX federal regulations.

SMC is committed to empowering all students to take action to eliminate discrimination, harassment and abuse.

Any sexual violence, harassment or physical abuse occurring against a SMC student, on SMC property, or at an SMC event or activity is a VIOLATION of District policies and regulations.
